COTTON MARKETS

Market Generally Steady, But Bulges Attract Selling. Weather Not Good.

Wednesday afternoon, April 16. Steadiness was the ruling tone in the tion market today, although on the ulges considerable pressure was forth-oming, indicating willingness to acsidered favorable, while advices from the goods markets continued excellent. The weather in the beit was far from ideal, coid prevailing over the western half, with prospect of extending sastward over night, while rains were general over the central and eastern beit. The weekly weather summary was about a Band-off, having enough good in it to offset the bad, and it really had little effect on values apparently. Liverpool was due to come 2 down to 10 up, but in the early part of the session did not measure up to expectations. There was little in the news to tell what sentiment was among the foreign traders, but there seemed a disposition to make haste slowly, in spite of the progress at Paris. Finals were steady and at some recovery, the list being from 1 to 8 points net to the good. Spots were maried up 31 points, good middling to 1559d, with sales 4,000 bales, including 3,000 American. Receipts were 14,000 bales, including 1,500 American. Receipts were 14,000 bales, including 1,500 American. Receipts were 14,000 bales, including 1,500 American. Beceipts were including the maximum trade the distant some higher compared with last night's closing. There was little in the early news to influence sentiment and the reactionary feeling seemer to prevail, presumably because it was felt that after the recent rise some setback was due. But trading was small and it did not take much selling to run values off. New July opened at 25.45c, included as high as 25.71c, dropped to 23.45c and then became steady and pactive.

The weekly weather summary came and failed to attract support because of its hullish features, but the reaction thereon lasted only is little while, after which buying increased and the list went to the highest levels of the swession. July touched 25.56c and colober 25.35c, but selling increased at the advance, some of it cresticed to the South against the actual.

There was no paracularly new feature in the finished goods attuation, but fairy good demand for apots in the vance, some of it created to the South against the actual.

There was no particularly new feature in the finished goods situation, but fairly good demand for spots in the belt was looked at with favor by those who were buillish. Exports are still disappointing, but there is broadening demand for the actual and those who are holding are very independent and seem obsessed with the idea that with the coming of peace will come stimulated demand for raw material. The start for the new crap is also not all that bears could wish for, while strongth in both stoch and grain markets is not hurting the buil side of cotton.

to 4 points up.

Inquiry in the local market continues good and there is a turnover almost as large as offerings from holders will allow. For today sales were 5,600 bales and quotations were up 25 points; unidding to 26.75c.

BLUE SKY LAW CAN'T GET ALL MISSISSIPPI FAKES

JACKSON, Miss. April 16.—J. W. Power, secretary of state, has sounded a warning to the neonle of Mississippl against the swarm of stock salesmen and flood of advertising pouring into the state to guil the public into buying stock in questionable enterprises.

Secretary Power's statement follows:
"I received today a copy of a lurid circular booming a certain ell stock it was sent in with the inquiry. What about Mississippi's blue sky law; can't you catch this grafter?

"This is a sample of many like inquiries daily reaching this office, and doubtless of many that thinking people are asking of themselves and each other. I shall try to answer them for the protection of the ponketbooks of those who permit themselves to be deceived by the false promises of big profits being held out by scores of speciesus schemers.
